Southern Sugar Company Advances on Program of Huge Expansion

EACH 10 ACRES CALLS FOR 1 MORE LABORER

Further Increase of Crews
When Harvest Starts
For Grinding

Four thousand acres of sugar cane have been planted in the past sixty days in the Southern Sugar Company's Canal Point division, and as each additional 10 acres of cane calls for the employment of another laborer, the consequence of the recent cane planting is the addition of 400 men to the payroll.

C. Greenwood, in charge of planting and cultivation operations, has about 1,200 men in his department. Extension of the new fields and additions to the crews made necessary the establishment of another camp, which is located in section 23 east of Ahokee, where 40 three-room houses were built and most of which are now occupied. The commissary is ready for occupancy. Labor is being recruited and col-

Harvest of cane for the operation of the Canal Point mill is due to start soon after New Year's. Weather conditions have been favorable to growth and the cane fields are in good condition. As planting will continue on its present scale or be increased, large additions to the number of employees will be necessary when a cane harvest starts.

Additional Circuit

The line will be extended from Royal Point to Belle Glade to connect with the through route between West Palm Beach and Fort

The telephone company had never receipts from its Everle stations this summer than ever had in any winter season to now, Mr. Jordan said as an evidence of the growth of this region. All of the instruments on Everglades circuits are on a coin-box circuit and Mr. Jordan attributes some of the increase in business to the use of the coin-box system under which payment is made by deposit in coin when the connection is secured.

THINK of Future Needs

THE DIFFERENCE between a savage and a civilized man is chiefly this: The savage thinks only of his wants right now, and the civilized man thinks of his needs in the future. There is a difference between "wants" and "needs." What you WANT now is not important,—the important thing is what you NEED in the future.

Lay by some money for the future needs. Put some money in the Bank with the idea of letting it stay there for a year or six months. The money will be more valuable to you then than it is now.

"LISTEN LADY"

Miss Mary Weathers, a talented young lady who is with the David Producing Company of Miami, Ga., is directing the play.

"Listen Lady" is a rollicking musical comedy staged in Walla Walla, a small country town. The story centers around Lady Mollie, the heroine of the play, from her start as a girl who sells candy until she is a success in the financial world. Don't let us forget the drawing card of the show, Johnny Green, the small town boy who goes to town and makes it in society. He is a comedian and a scream in his role, making "Listen Lady" a sweet love story with a lot of fun and laughter, also tears mixed in. In all, it is a real musical comedy with beautiful girls and beautiful costumes.

The cast of characters is as follows: Mrs. J. P. Jernigan, Mrs. G. H. Hasty, merchant in Walla Walla, Jess Elliott.

Phil Osopher, merchant in Walla Walla, Harold Rosenberg.

Betty Osopher, Phil's flapper daughter, Christine Lee.

Tom Tempest, experienced salesman, Louis Frazier.

Lois Frazier, who makes candy, Mrs. L. G. Sims.

Bob White, a wealthy heir, Louis Levin.

Levin Sinclair, Mrs. L. C. Goodby, Johnny Green, who gets to Walla, Everett Allen.

Norma Laurence, an actress, Mrs. Gloria Ralston, an artist, Mrs. C. C. Coleman.

Cindy Randolph, a wealthy spinster, Mrs. W. H. Vann.

James, a builder, Jess Elliott.

The beautiful and talented chorus girls are: Mrs. Johnny Thomas, Mrs. Don Cameron, Mrs. Horace Hamrick, Mrs. G. H. Tucker, Mrs. Archie Fowler, Mrs. Francis Cross, Mrs. Ray Hawk, Miss Vera Todd, who will entertain their own group of new snappy songs and graceful dancing.

Vera Simmons, Billy Danson, Stella Harrington, Elsie Paine, Elizabeth Higgintham, Frances Allen, Frances Joyce and Jean Selby are the kiddy-cats that will furnish lots of fun and enjoyment.

Tiny Todd, C. R. Wetherington, F. Eugene Barnes, Donald Carter, Jack Fowler, Dwight Edge-man, Junior Cross and Joe Tom.

Boydton very cleverly impersonate Uncle Sam, and with their songs and dances will be the crowd.

Mrs. E. E. Mallard will furnish the music for the play. She, like her sister, Miss Mary Weathers, has had experience directing plays and is a very valuable help.

The following will furnish the entertainment between acts: Fred Reynolds, T. A. Bass, Vermette Snoddy, Miss Weatherford, Miss Mary Weathers, Harold Rosenberg and Jess Elliott.

The admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Certain will be sent promptly at 8 o'clock. Come early and get a good seat.

Some of the plans from the play will go toward the building fund for a club house for the Canal Point Women's Club.

The Pep class of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. C. A. Shive. Many games were played and refreshments were enjoyed by those present.

ROTARY CHARTER PRESENTED AND ALL DELIGHTED

Pahokee Proud To Entertain Visitors and They Glad To Be Here

NOTABLE ADDRESSES BY ROBERTS, SELBY

Heartily Thanks To Friends For Co-operation In Making Program

Addresses in the afternoon that interpreted the ideals and functions of Rotary and a program of vaudeville character in the evening, with the serving of a fish dinner in the interval, made up a program Monday at Pahokee for high school auditorium where Howard W. Selby of West Palm Beach, district governor, presented to Pahokee Rotary Club the charter which joined the Everglades community with the international organization.

The Pahokee club is for the bettering the lives of the district, and although it was made up by the Homestead club, it is not to be confused with the Homestead club's grandchild. The Homestead club of the Everglades was made complete when President Henry D. Knight of the West Palm Beach Rotary Club presented a charter and was assured that its acceptance gave any member of that club privilege to attend the Pahokee club's meetings and talk as long as he wanted to without danger of the gavel being used against him.

Noble expositions of Rotary were made by E. P. Roberts of Homestead and District Governor Selby in well proportioned addresses that enlightened and entertained. The welcome to the visitors was given by J. LaBarr.

A three-quarters of an hour interval between the conclusion of the charter presentation exercises and the serving of the fish fry under the palm trees allowed time for the making of acquaintances and the exchange of social good and renewal of friendships. Instead of the crowd passing along the table and selecting food at hazard, the fish and its accompaniments were heaped on plates and passed out in quick and orderly manner, 140 persons being served.

Many of the visitors remained for the evening entertainment at the school auditorium, where also were many residents of the community. On the program for the evening entertainment were the Shawano orchestra, Mrs. W. H. Ralston, "Slim" Stevenson, Mrs. Mabel Lutz and Miss Lorraine Elliott and Miss Myrtle Paulk. Fred Reynolds of Canal Point, J. P. Jernigan, Jr. and Abe Dobrow, who tender their thanks to the visitors who contributed to the programs and express their gratitude to the Canal Point and Pahokee people for their assistance.

While the local committee acknowledged its appreciation of the co-operation given it, President Howard Sharp expressed his delight at the success that the committee brought about by their joint sound judgment and hard work.

ROTARY NOTES

Newspapers were represented by D. H. Conkling, owner of the Palm Beach Post, and W. A. Payne, its business manager; E. F. Stumpf, business manager of the Palm Beach Times, and Ben Archer, editor of the Homestead Leader, and E. M. Menninger, editor of the Stuart Daily News, none of whom are strangers in the Glades.

Harley Williams, manager of Denton's Pahokee store, was not on the original program and entertainment committee, but he had an important place in the proceedings for Harley kept an eye on the plate glasses on which the fish dinner was served.

It is doubtful if anyone got more pleasure out of the affair than Herman Gold did, Herman has just succeeded in getting the title of Pahokee's best booster.

One of the distinguished visitors to East Beach this week was Jerome F. Wideman of West Palm Beach, who was member of parties that visited the Glades and lake region years ago when he and his wife, Mrs. Wideman, got a boat up North New River canal to South Bay, hence he has seen the country coming and going and coming again.

One of the members of the Kiwanis quartet is E. C. Ramsey. There probably is no one who has sung in as many choirs and Christmas chorals and at as many functions as he. His club affairs in the Yumty are as follows:

DEATH OF MRS. R. BOE

Mrs. R. Boe, wife of R. Boe and mother of Elford and Hugo, a pioneer resident of East Beach, died Friday morning in a hospital in West Palm Beach following an operation for appendicitis. The suddenness of her illness and its unexpected character, with death following soon after an operation that was intended to give relief, shocked the community little less than the family, unprepared to adjust themselves to their loss.

Devoted to her family and her duties as a mother and her active part in community affairs but her devotion in religion and her kindness to neighbors and her qualities as a housewife and mother made her known in a wide circle as an admirable woman whose death brings deep sorrow to many persons.

sons beyond the circle of immediate friends.

Mrs. Boe was born in Odessa, Denmark, in 1880, and was married to Mr. R. Boe in 1902. They came to America after their marriage, settling in Wisconsin and later residents of Texas, from which state the family went to Moore Haven and after a brief stay in Moore Haven came to Pahokee in 1921.

It was only this week that her usual good health was disturbed; on Thursday a phase of her illness was diagnosed as appendicitis and she was at once removed to the hospital, her husband and her son Olaf accompanying her. They were at the hospital when she died. Hugo, the other son, a member of the Coast Guard, was not aware of his mother's illness and was at Fort Lauderdale when notified of his mother's death.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. F. E. Tiffin of Pahokee and interment was made in the West Palm Beach cemetery.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

Dr. E. W. Brandes of Washington, D. C., of the U. S. office of sugar cane investigation: "The Department of Agriculture started a cane testing station on one of the Florida keys but conditions were not altogether favorable to our purposes so a better location was sought and Canal Point was selected. The key on which the station was started was Collins Island near Miami. It is now known as Miami Beach. Although that key did not serve as a point at which to grow sugar canes, some use was found for the island nevertheless."

R. A. Bushong has returned to Canal Point from Arkansas, where he grows strawberries in the summer and fall.
